

THE END

Family Animals

My mum is the best mum.
She likes cleaning up the house and watching the news on TV.

She was born in the Year of the Rat,
a good sign in China.

My dad is the best dad.
He likes sports,
he runs a boxing club.

He has a few dragon tattoos
but he was born in the Year of the Snake.

My half-brother is a cheeky monkey.
He had a lot of hair when he was born.
He was born in the Year of the Monkey.

But my brother is a Pig.
He eats anything.

Rebecca.

Team writing - one word each...

Once there were four pigs
that flew wildly into, then over a stable. When a farmer shouted at them, they snorted loudly.
All of a sudden a sheep ran without a leg or a tail, straight into a very smelly cow.
Then they all had tea.

The End.

 Workshops organised and leaflet designed by Fox Graphic Design Ltd.
Images from Istock Library: Sheep, Pig, Cow and Children Running. All other photographs copyright Hannah Fox 2008.

All of a sudden a sheep ran...

Children's Poetry in the Hospital

Poet and writer Mike Wilson hosted two workshops with children in the hospital. This is a selection of the fantastic work the children produced.

Derby Hospitals
NHS Foundation Trust